Throw the camera away — because no photo can truly capture what it feels like to be here. This amazing 3 bedroom apartment sits in one of Dénia's most privileged positions, offering some of the finest coastal and Montgó views you will ever experience. The panorama stretches from the marina and castle across the Mediterranean, sweeping down the coastline towards Las Rotas and out to Cullera. It's a view that doesn't just impress — it stays with you. Step onto the balcony and everything changes. The horizon opens, the air softens, and a rare calm settles in. Start the day with a coffee on the terrace as the sun rises out of the Mediterranean, the Montgó catching the first light, and end it watching the sun go down behind the castle as the town lights up below you. It's a unique sensation — that quiet, elevated Mediterranean feeling you only get in places that are genuinely special. Inside, the renovated apartment is bright, welcoming and designed to make the most of its top-floor position. Natural light pours through the living areas and bedrooms, creating a warm, serene atmospher...
