Description

PLEASE CHECK OUT THE 3D VIRTUAL VISIT OF THIS PROPERTY BY CLICKING ON THE ICON BELOW After over 17 years of running this well known cafe/bar, the owner has decided to take her well deserved retirement and consequently we have this very attractive business up for sale. There is an established clientelle over the 12 months of the year with the fabulous elevated terrace allowing views to the sea being an attractive option in the warmer months, and in winter, the interior becomes a cosy refuge on the cooler nights with its heated bar. The position of the bar is key to its current and future business success as the premises are a few steps from the popular Marineta beach and there are many other bars and restaurants attracting customers to the area all year round. Although the bar has been run in recent years with out providing food the area behind the bar will easily convert back into...
