Description

Fantastic traditional style Montgo villa A great family home or a superb holiday rental prospect. The centrepiece of the vast swimming pool sets this apart from so many others, but in addition you have here a comfortable home with lots of character inside and out. The current owners have maintained the property well and although the next owners could consider changes to the interior fittings, there is no doubt that the house provides for very comfortable living in its present state. There is a great feeling of spaciousness around the property, having a plot of close on 2,000m². The parking area to the side has a double carport and sufficient space to park further vehicles. The main entry to the house itself is via a metal gate in a walled garden - a few steps lead to an open naya and then into the lounge. This room is very spacious with a dining area incorporated. There is a fireplace to o...
