Description

Town house in the traditional village of Senija As you enter the property there is a hall with staircase leading to the upper floors where there is a large open plan lounge with adjacent dining room and adjoining fully fitted, modern kitchen with high quality appliances, units and work surfaces. A hallway leads from the dining area giving access to a family bathroom with shower, and finally to a large bedroom which is currently being used as an office. On the first floor there are two additional bedrooms, one of them having an en suite bathroom and the other is the extremely spacious "master bedroom" and both with fitted wardrobes. There is also a second bathroom with bath on this floor. The stairs continue to the second floor and into a second lounge which can be used as a summer kitchen or possibly as a fourth bedroom. There is access to two solarium terraces, both having panoramic v...
