Description

A villa with lots of charm lovely outside seating areas and beautiful sea views. Lovely sea views from terraces, naya, dining area, one bedroom and the pool. The kitchen is spectacular and comprises a "wine cellar", ideally located between the front patio and the back pergola, latter in midst of pine trees, a simply fantastic place for dining al fresco. Exiting the kitchen direction pergola there is a big masoned BBQ. You will find it hard to make a choice when it comes to where you want to have your meals - patio, pergola, kitchen or with sea views from the dining room or the terrace. Over the years the house has been constantly extended and upgraded. The different levels are connected with stairs outside or inside the house. One flight of stairs down 16 steps from dining area, the other one can be found on the opposite side of the house right next to the main entrance, a spiral staircas...
