Description

Fantastic build quality in a beautiful location The house may be modern but the style is uniquely rustic with lots of wood used throughout. The quality of build is not to be overlooked here and there has been great attention given to producing a large property that doesn't surrender character with its size. On three distinct levels
Basement - garage and large store area
First floor - Hallway to large open plan lounge with dining area and traditional style kitchen, two large bedrooms with associated bathroom, storeroom and large open naya with views
Second floor - main bedroom with bathroom, dressing area
There is a possibility to develop an area of basement (50m² approximately) to create further rooms.
